French Immersion Week! April 7 – 10, 2025

There have been a lot of exciting events recently for French Immersion. March featured "Manie Musicale" where students listened to Francophone songs and voted on their preferred song. Immersion classes voted on which of two songs that they liked the best and the votes were compiled of all students to find out which song advanced to the next bracket. The last match was held as an assembly in the gym on March 13 between "Comment tu vas?" and "On se moque" with the winner from École Red Bluff Lhtako being "Comment tu vas?" The worldwide winner is yet to be announced!

Then on March 14, students got to taste a bit of Québec with learning about and enjoying Cabane à Sucre/ la tire (maple taffy). When real maple syrup is heated to 115 C, it caramelizes into maple taffy when it goes onto the snow. French Immersion students from K-9 and Red Bluff Core French classes got to enjoy this delicacy. C'était délicieux!

Finally, French Immersion week is coming up next week with an assembly and Bingo on April 7 at 1 pm. Students will be watching Moana 2 in French at the Carib Theatre on April 8 and there will be Jess Dance workshops in French on Wednesday and Thursday. Classes are sharing about different countries where French is spoken around the world. This year's countries feature: Monaco, Switzerland, Belgium, Niger, Ivory Coast and Louisiana state (USA). Mme. McCart is hosting a bilingual Scholastic book fair during the week too.

Last week for Purdy's chocolate in time for Easter. Orders will be accepted until Friday the 4th at midnight!
